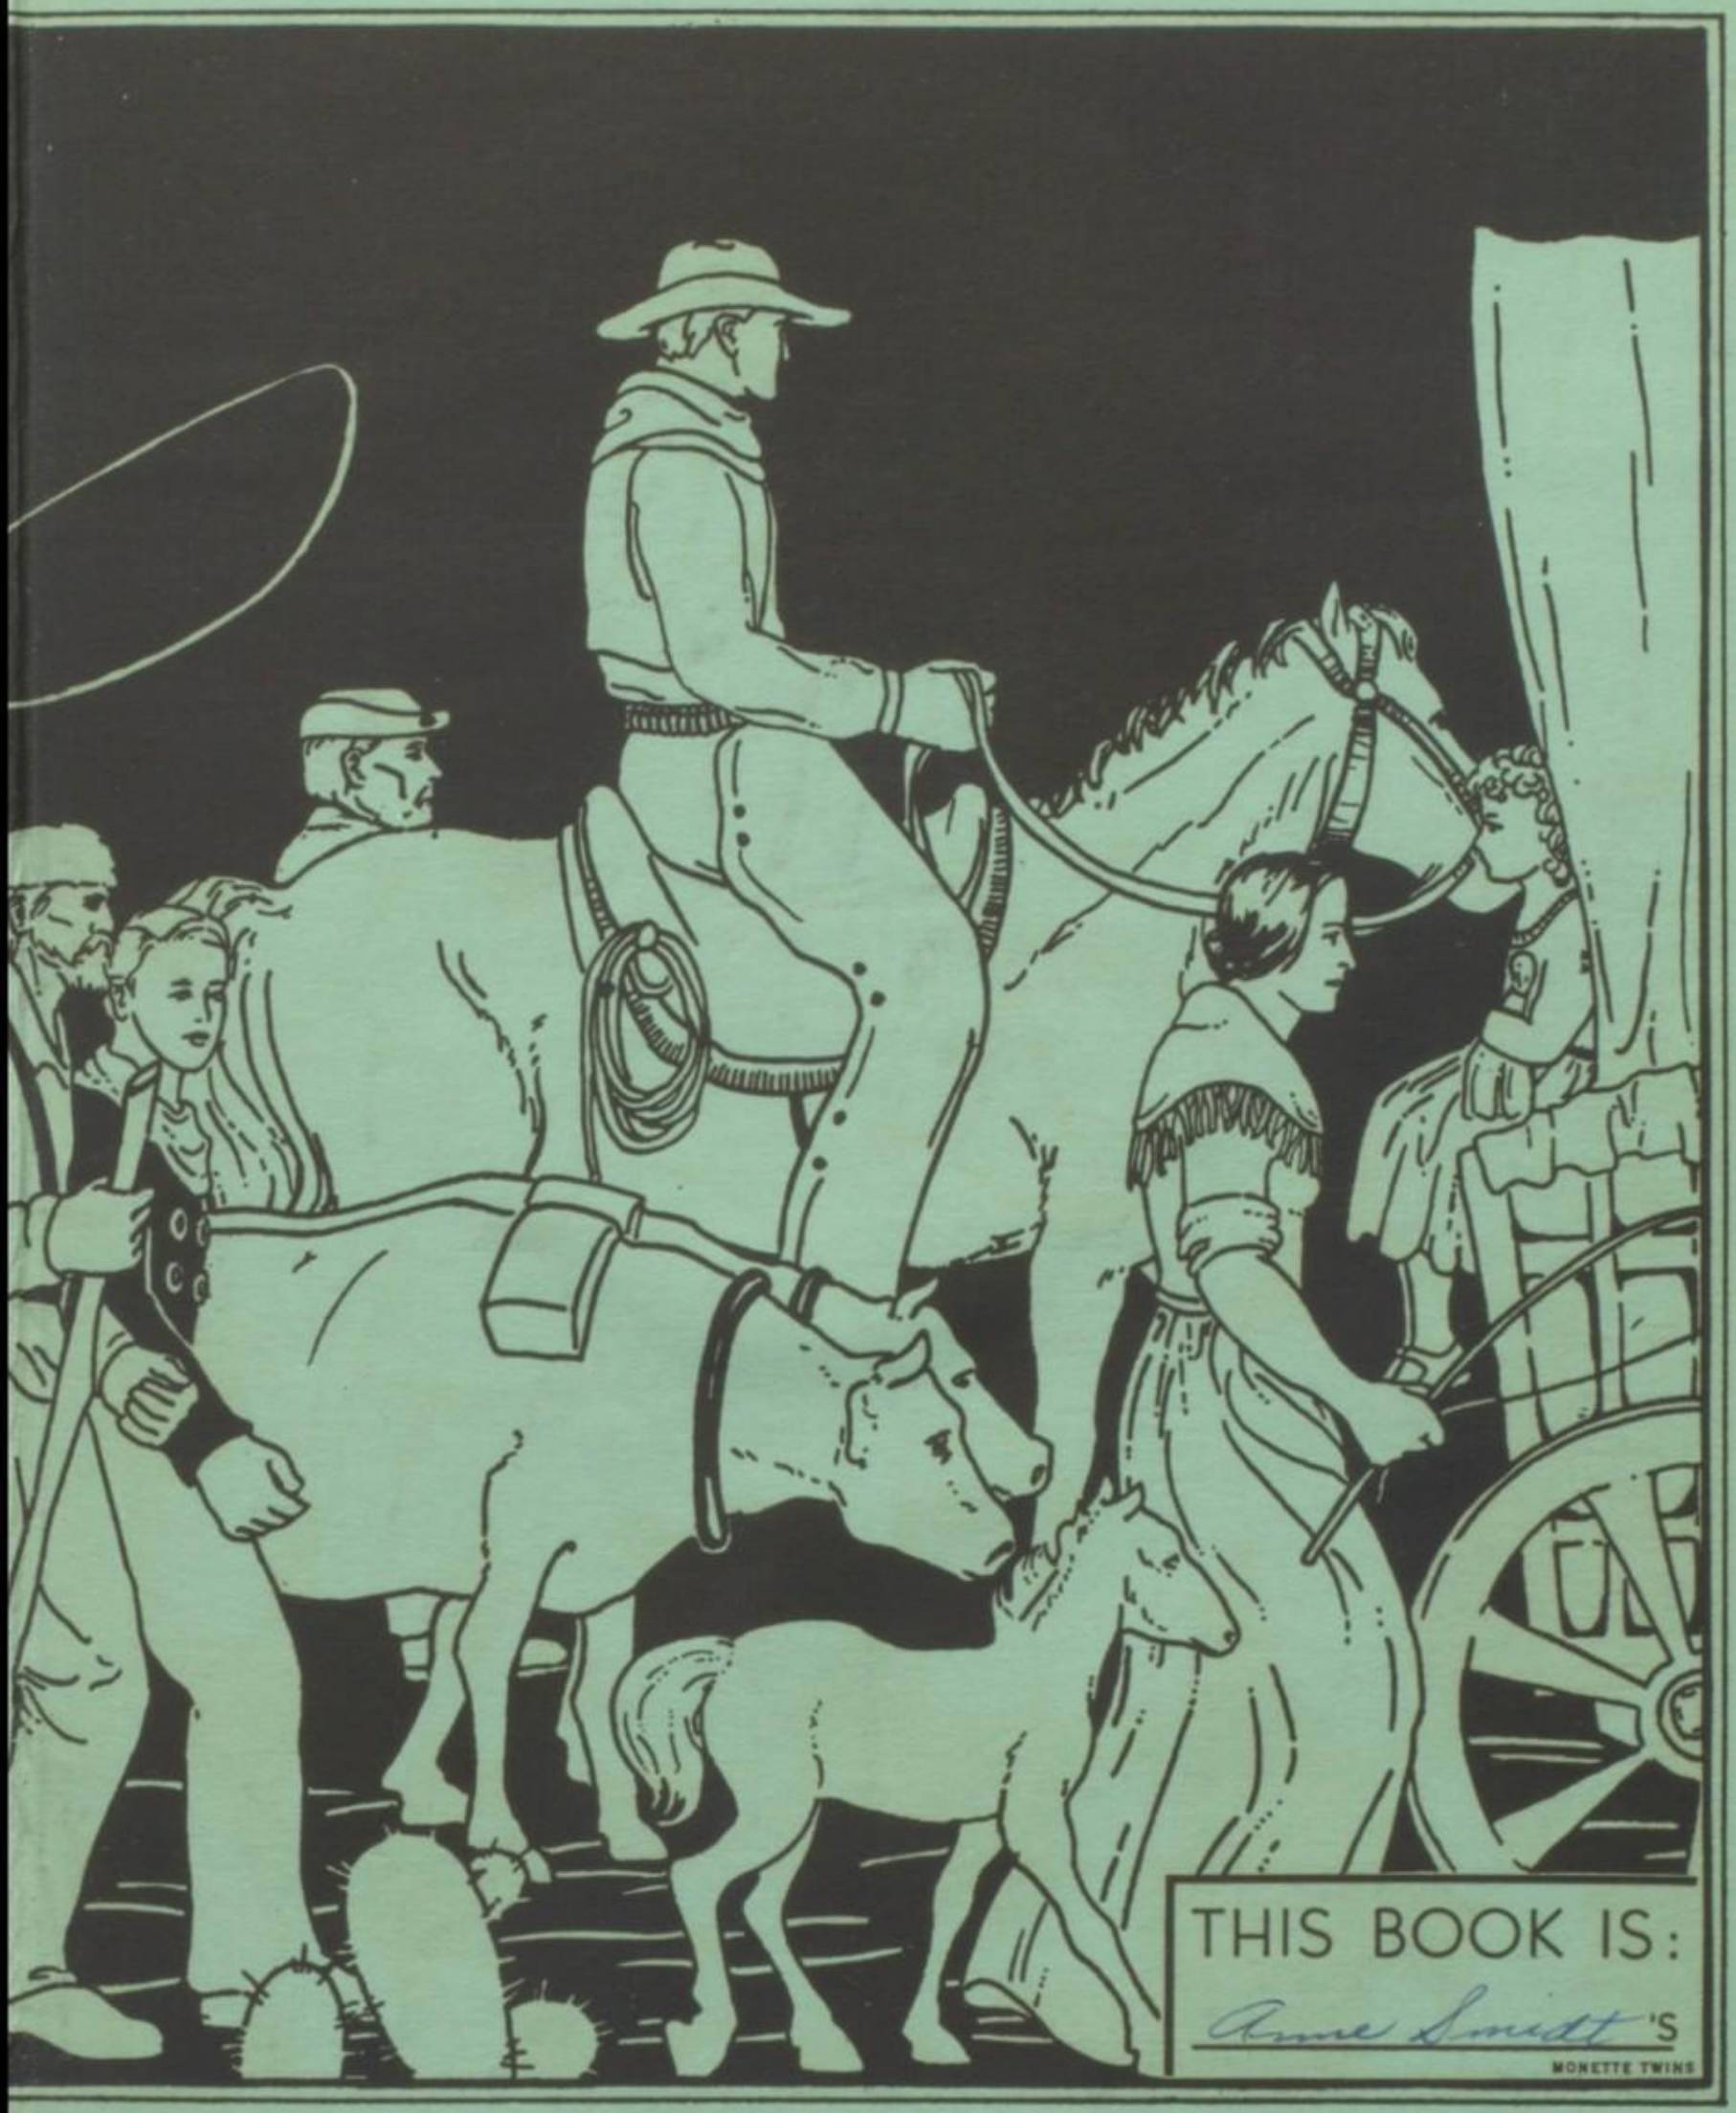
Very Best Wishes
Frances M. Burns



Dear Arad.
I'm sure you don't know me very well but
I'm really not my fault.
Cliff Perry.

I'll probably see you again (Don't you live on 31st?)
so until then - Au Revoir

FRANKLIN HIGH SCHOOL

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

FOREWORD

BRAVE pioneer band,
We exalt you,
True sons of the border West,
Who, with hearts afire,
With eager desire,
Went forth on a noble quest.
Faith ever impelling
You onward,
O'er a wide uncharted sea,
You fearlessly sailed
To this Western land,
Where freedom's winds
Blow free.

—DAVID FALLON.

Like the pioneer's life——a kaleidoscope of events——following each other in quick succession——touched by hardships and heartaches——yet in the end crowned with success——so has been the 1930-31 year at Franklin——winning teams——high scholarship——greater dramatics——closer student friendship——cheerful faculty cooperation——new successful social events ——hard work and clean sport——a year of precious memories——now, at the close——the 1931 Tolo Annual Staff——presents a greater graphic history——this——the 1931 Tolo.

DEDICATION

To Lillian Fowler——our class adviser——through four years at Franklin ——dependable——ever willing——ready at all times with helpful suggestions——ready to try something new——never tiring——lending a guiding hand——yet never forcing——helping to make better, more useful citizens of us——to her who has helped so——to make the Class of '31 outstanding——in all parts of school life——the Franklin student body——proudly dedicates the 1931 Tolo.

IN MEMORIAM

That we may not forget—the classmates who have been called from us—that memories of them may not die—that their good deeds and companionship—may be remembered and cherished—such may this humble reminder—help to do for those of our comrades —who have passed on—before completing high school—with us.

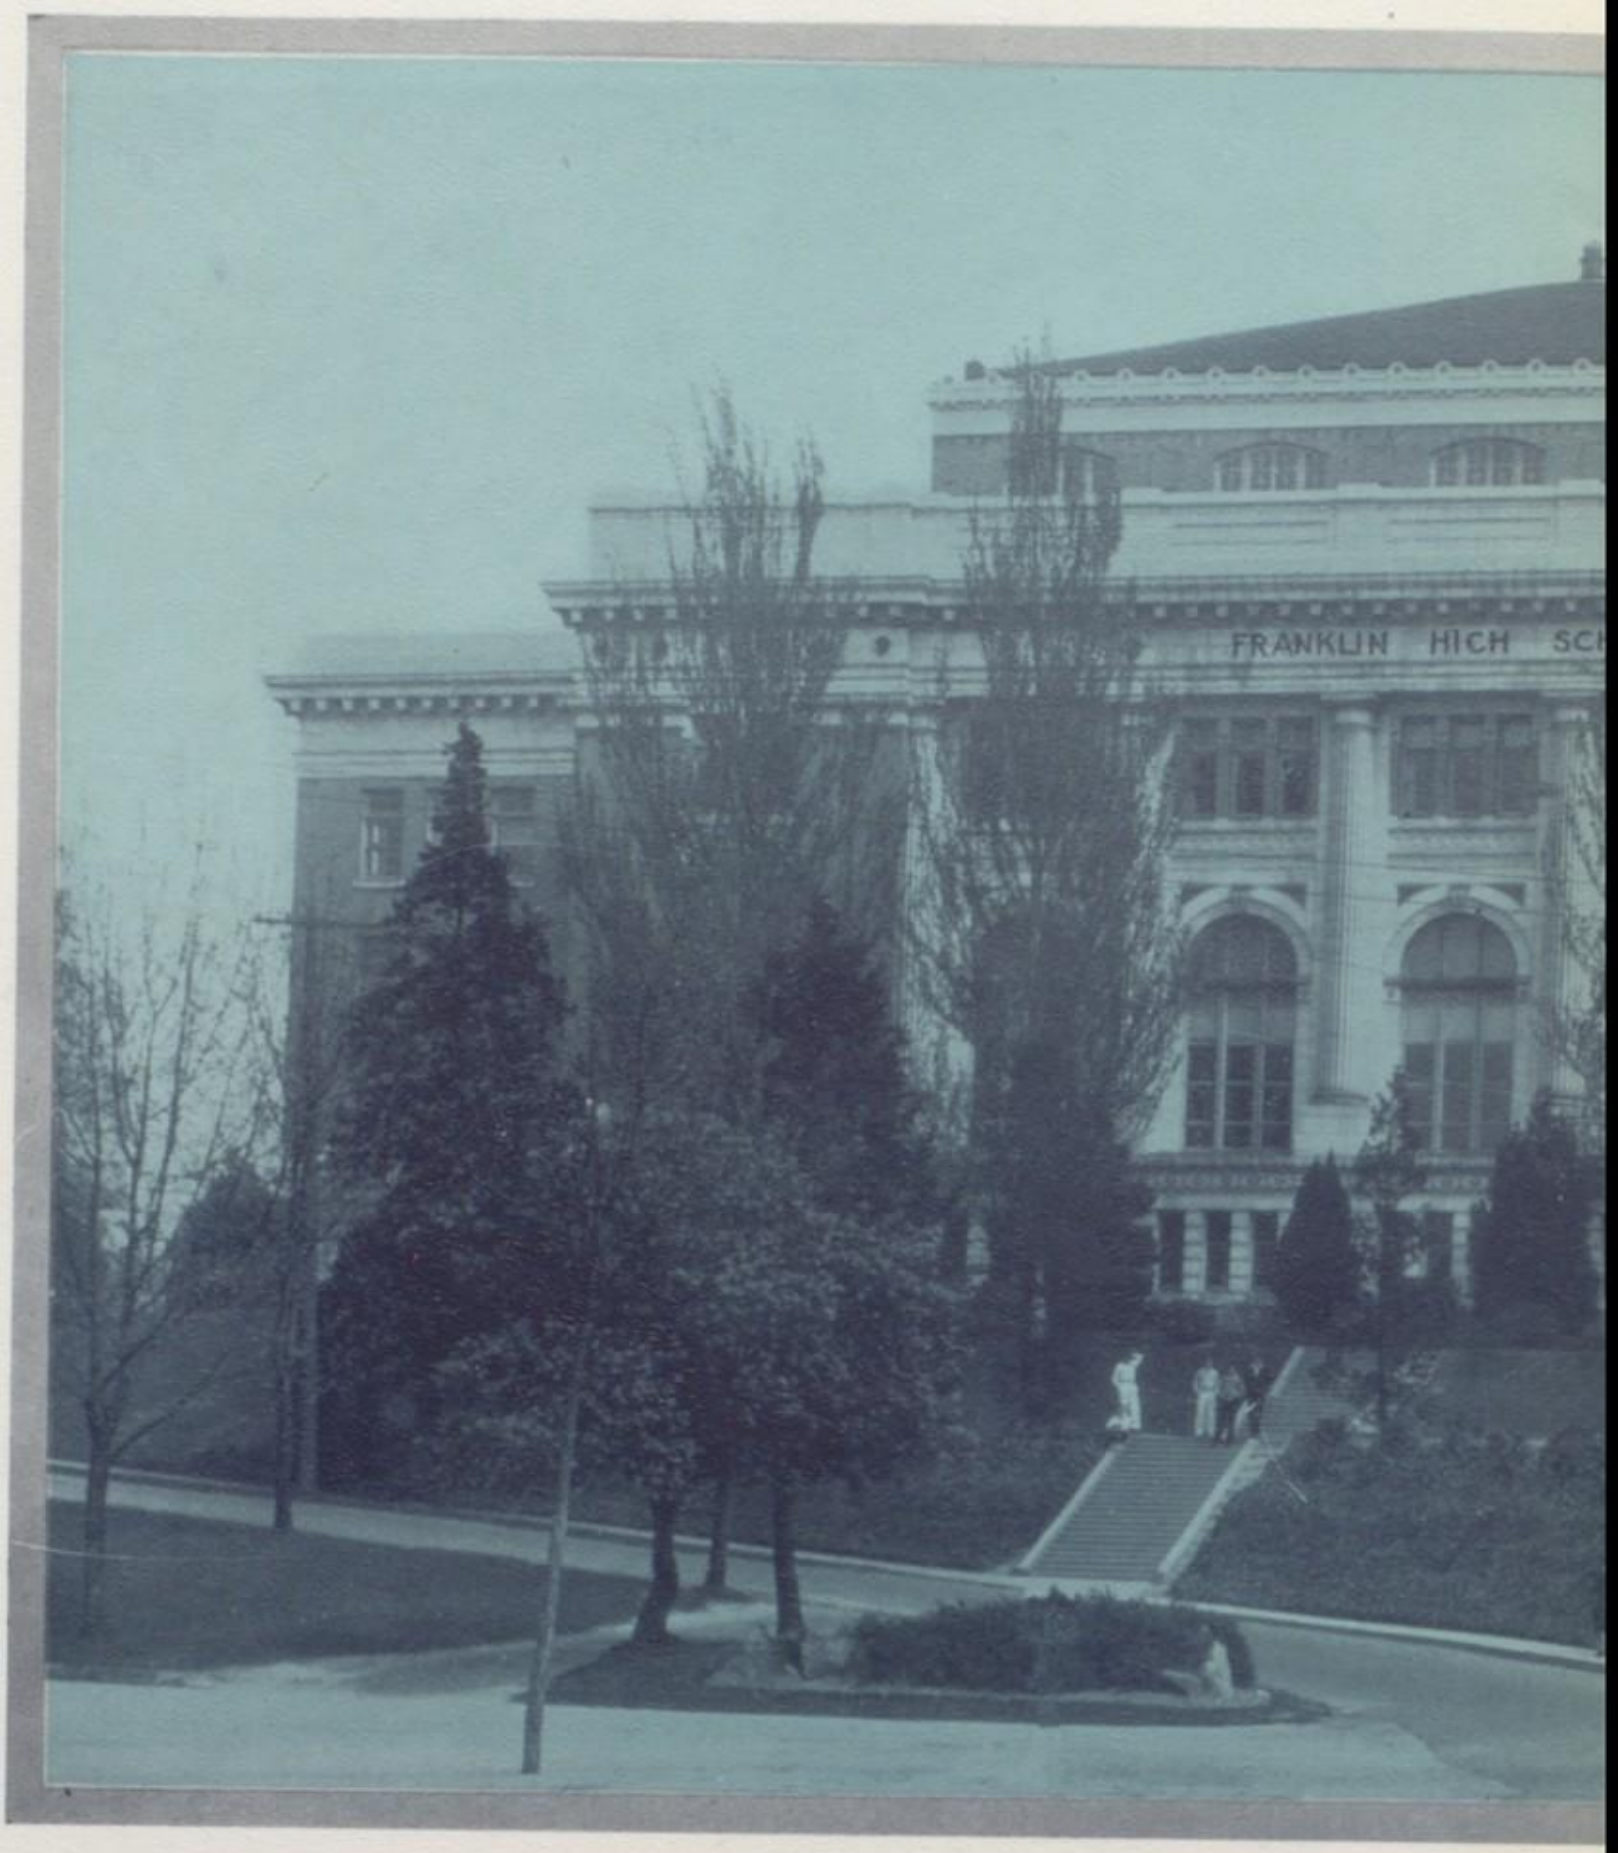
SCHOOL SPIRIT



Situated on a rise——the school stands out——like a mighty symbol——beckoning to p after four years——are equipped to face life and the future——it is a symbol of learning—ake of higher education——within its portals——so that those who go out from it—— fittingly dedicated——to that master craftsman, scientist, thinker—Benjamin Franklin.

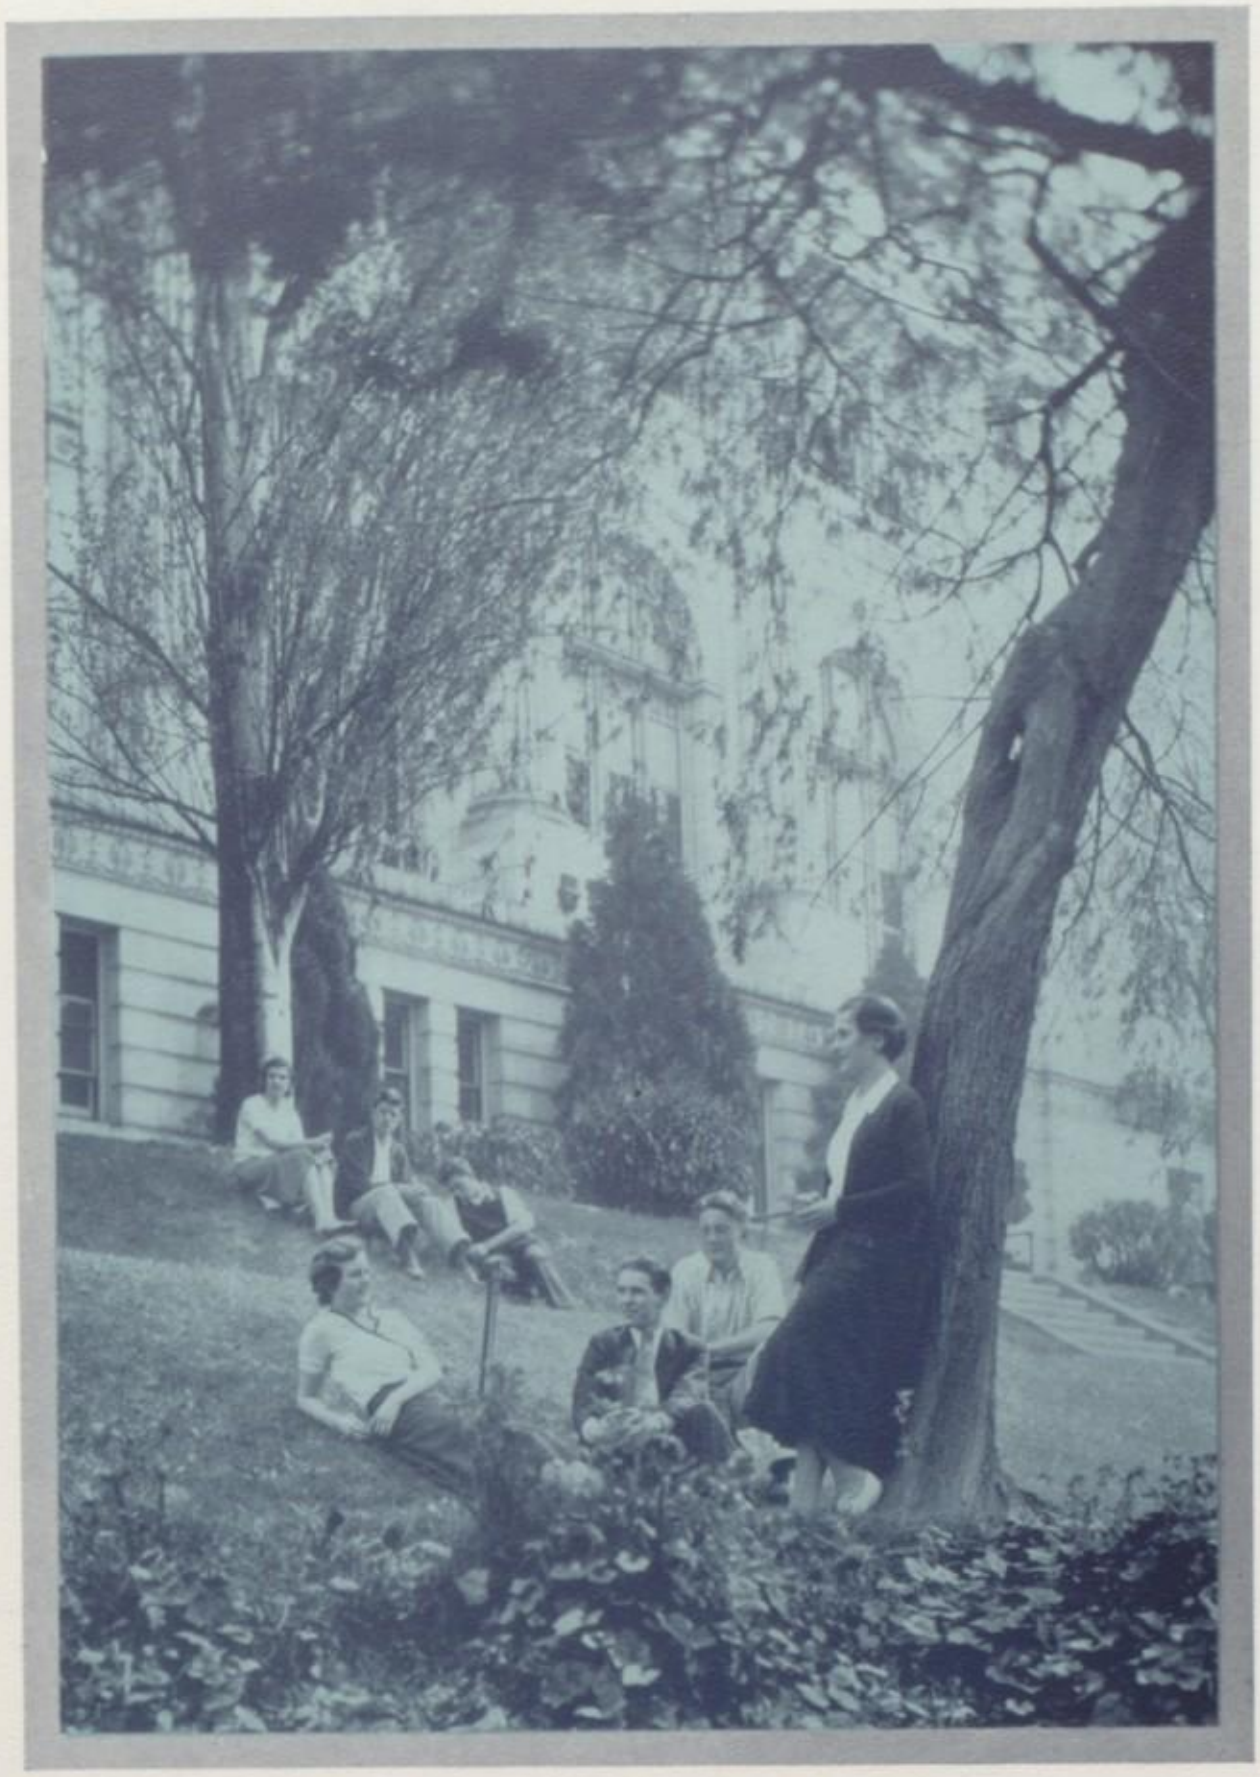
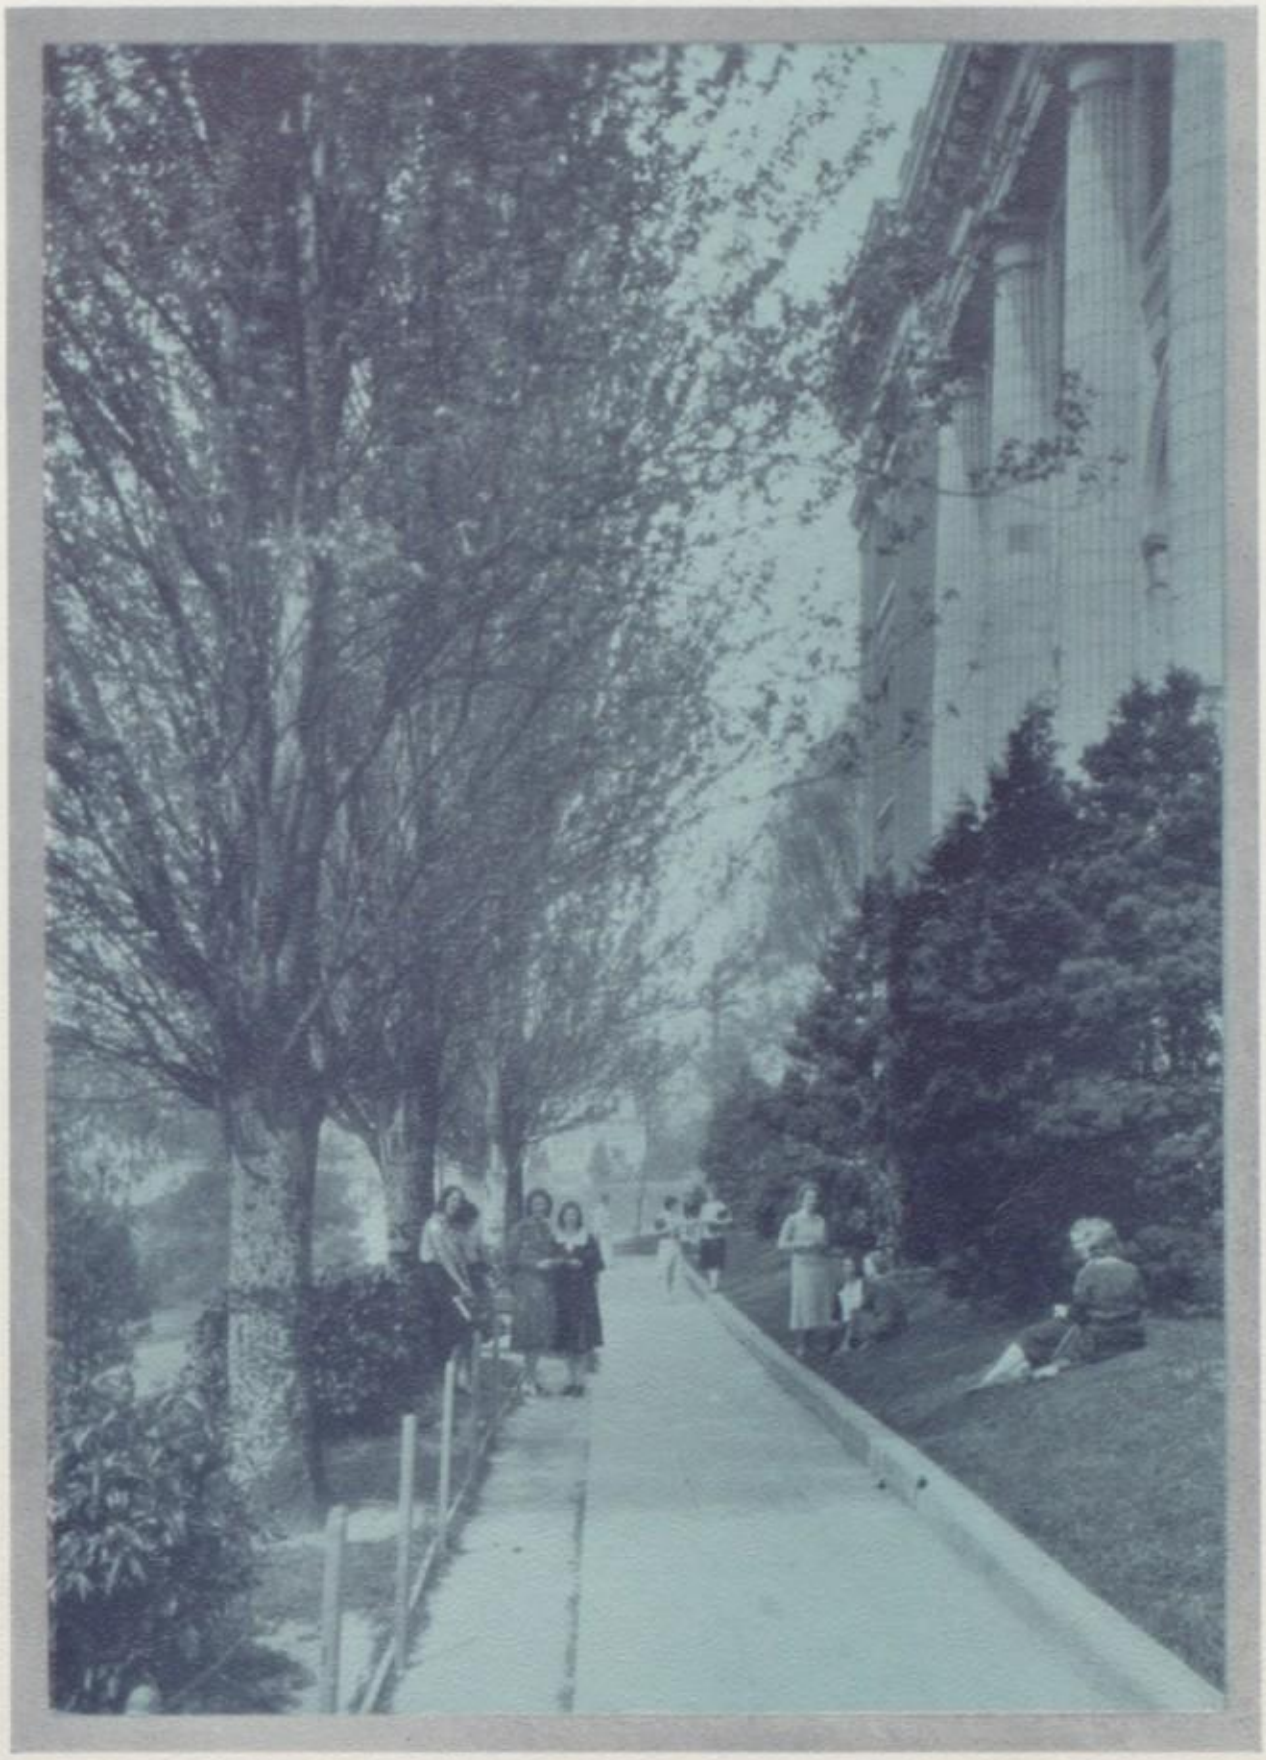
THE WEST CAMPUS——School is not all work——here on the west side of the building ——under the poplar trees——many happy hours are spent—the sun in the western sky ——in midafternoon——casts a golden glow ——over the western front——of the beautiful building.



POPLARS AND COLUMNS——students coming from the West——athletes going to and from practices——all walk down this lane ——flanked on one side by poplars——and on the other by the tall, slender white columns ——of the stately building——an avenue of beauty——a fitting entrance.



Dear Lou:
I hope you like Lou's set in this class it will make the 3rd semester
you know it's a charm.
Sincerely
Evelyn O'Neil

Lots of luck
Pauline Fox

FROM THE NORTH——as the day lengthens into midafternoon——and the sun starts its downward course——in the West——its last slanting rays——bathe the north entrance ——in a golden light——shadows creep across the lawn——day is done.

Lot. 12 Creek Avenue
Betty Clavey
1940

PIONEERS——now as then——blazing a trail to higher education——the faculty——older and experienced——seniors——ready to take their places in the battle of life——all the others working toward the day——when they, too, step out into the world.

SENIOR SONG

We entered Franklin Hi
With a motto, "Do or die."
We've tried to wear
A cheerful smile each day,
And now as Seniors grand,
We want you to understand
That no matter where we go
We will always let you know:

That our dear Senior class of Thirty-one
Is full of pep and full of fun,
We hate to see these happy days go by,
We'll always lead the school in all we do,
We're never sad, we're never blue,
We'll show our loyalty to Franklin Hi,
We are sure that you will always find us ready
To do our very best to keep the standards high,
And so we hope our class will leave its name
Forever in this hall of fame;
So here's to Franklin, where fond memories lie.

And now the time is nigh
When we part from Franklin Hi,
But memories dear
We'll cherish through the years,
We shall never forget
All the loyal friends we've met,
And of the happy days we'll tell
As we sing our fond farewell.

Most popular class song of recent years——words and music composed by Vanecia Ewing at beginning of school year——sung at Senior assemblies, pep rallies, and at almost every Senior class activity——song captivated the whole school——Senior class no longer has a monopoly on it——all classes began using it——Freshmen whispered it——Sophomores whistled it——Juniors hummed it——Seniors sang it——everyone knew the song by heart.

SENIOR HISTORY

1928——Morris Ballard elected President——Frosh were usual lively bunch——gridders tied for second place——yearlings won cross-country run——girls showed clever talent in dramatics and music——Miss Lillian Fowler to guide class through high school career——green and white, class colors——but they weren't as green as their colors!

1929——Lois Nelson headed Sophomore class——three second-year men made first team in football——many students identified with school entertainments——group also had large representation on Honor Society——Class of '31 made an auspicious start in dramatics——Soph Mixer main event of the year——already beginning to be noticed.

1930——Trygve Hansen led the Juniors through their third year——seven men won football letters——thirty-two in Honor Society——two make debate team——revive Junior-Senior matinees——began to make themselves felt in publications' work——many Juniors in "Franklin Static," annual vodvil——many in "Chocolate Soldier," spring opera.

1931——Edwina Hendricks, Senior class prexy——football team gained second place——"Once in a Lifetime" class play—introducing innovation in class pins——largest Senior Honor Society in school's history——took leading parts in vodvil, "Flying Hi"—mid-year class day for February grads——"Carmen," midwinter concert, mainly work of Seniors——decided on caps and gowns for commencement——"Geisha" presented as spring opera——Class Day and moving up——Commencement——grads now.

Dear Anne,
I sure have enjoyed being in a class with you and I hope to be in one in another class with you sincerely

COACHES

KIRK

REED

DOUG KIRK——A coach that steps right out and shows the boys how it should be done ——taking all the knocks and bruises——his football teams always tricky, well-balanced squads——nearly always in first division—— Kirk's hoop teams fare equally well——track is his specialty and his teams hold their own.

RALPH REED——Affectionately known to his boys as "Pop"——interest in his athletes extends beyond school time——came here with enviable record——has added to it——nearly all his frosh football teams are champions—— expects to major in P. E. at Columbia—— professes to hate newspapermen, but doesn't ——a great guy, "Pop."

FOOTBALL

Franklin 7—Roosevelt 0

RICH ..... End

Second Team All-City—Len was chosen by his teammates as greatest inspiration to team, and awarded Warner Trophy distinction. He graduates.

KIMBALL ..... Tackle

Captain—"Beans" topped off three years of Football by proving himself the best all-round Tackle in the league. Kimball graduates.

HANSEN ..... Guard

All-City—The fastest sprinter in town. Trygve hauled down plenty of ball packers, and was an offensive big gun. Hansen graduates.

Franklin 13—Broadway 0

GILLIAM ..... Guard

Jack combined weight and speed to cop off his position for the last two years. He will be back next season.

CAMP ..... Fullback

"Jumbo" was by far the largest player in the league, and scored 13 points with his bone-crushing tactics. Camp returns.

RICHARDS ..... Halfback

Though rather light, Frank was plenty fast and showed his heels to the opposition on many an end run. He returns.

Franklin 37—Ballard 7

"CAM" CALLIN ..... Halfback

"Cam" was the speed sensation of the season with his long runs with which he scored 38 points. Cameron will return.

CHAS. CALLIN ..... Quarterback

Chuck made the All-City last year and just missed it this season. His clever generalship sparked the Quakers. He graduates.

DICKIE ..... End

Playing his first season of the grid sport, Roland won a place on the squad and outplayed many veterans. Dickie graduates.

MANAGERS

Harold Giles, Len Polokoff

FOOTBALL

Franklin 7—Lincoln 19

BROUGHAM ..... Tackle

"Bud" filled in the Tackle gap with his 225 lbs. in a manner any vet might envy. He returns next year.

BELL ..... Center

Backed by two years of experience, and built close to the ground. Gene smeared plenty of center plays. Bell graduates.

RITCHIE ..... Halfback

Bob returned to Franklin in time to break into the Quaker backfield, where he was a scoring threat. He graduates.

Franklin 14—Cleveland 6

HOYT ..... Guard

A fast rough and tough player, "Jiggs" excelled in going down under punts and nailing the receiver. And how! Hoyt graduates.

MAURER ..... End

With a year's experience behind him Maurer proved himself a mean pass snagger and no slouch on defense. He graduates.

KUGLER ..... Halfback

Bob proved too good for the Scrubs and moved up to the regular backfield where he worked smoothly. Bob graduates.

Franklin 12—Garfield 13

RUGG ..... Center

Alternating with Bell at the Center position Rugg proved his ability and will figure prominently on next year's Quaker eleven.

DE CARO ..... Halfback

Scoring 25 points in the four games in which he played, Frank placed among the leading scorers of the League. He graduates.

ED METZGER ..... Head Manager

Considered the best manager who ever slung a towel.

Second Team Football

Runners-up——classiest and swiftest team in the league——lost championship in heart-breaking 7-6 defeat by Garfield Bulldogs——ran up highest total score compiled by a second team squad in recent years——won four out of five contests——spectacular, trick plays——opponents baffled——will strengthen next year's Green Wave.

Freshman Football

Champions——second straight year——heavy, bone-crushing line that overwhelms opposition——undefeated in two years——best squad "Pop" Reed has ever coached——at start of season——green rookies——at conclusion——finished material——potential first team All-City stars next year——ragged uniforms——poor equipment——hard knocks——but spirit unquenchable——true Champs.

First Team Basketball

A dark horse in the race—unfinished material——many faults to be ironed out by Coach Doug Kirk——big, tough opponents——close scores always against Quakers——routine work in fundamentals to build up next year's team——team feared and respected by first division clubs——three victories and nine defeats——always close, scrappy scoring duels——defeats never decisive——new schedule system hampers team chances——with no upper nor lower division the Green Wave forced to meet strongest teams——team of Junior class stars developed——will be most promising squad in prep league in 1931-1932 campaign.

Second Team Basketball

Starting slowly——eligibility holds down Quaker hopes in first three games——new semester brings added strength——smooth combination plays that clicked——three decisive victories in quick succession——tight defensive games——time limits with Franklin seconds trailing——spelled defeats——record of four victories, a tie, and seven losses——very fair record considering class of opponents.

Sophomore Basketball

Lack of material——team work not up to highest standard ——inevitable defeats——flashes of real form shown frequently which spelled an occasional victory——bright spots shown in play of individual stars——experience will prove invaluable next season——for first year Soph basketball draws crowds of eager fans.

Freshman Basketball

Runners-up——a fast, smooth-working squad with team work as its goal——no individual stars——a team "Pop" Reed should be proud of——tight defensive play held opponents below ten points in four contests——final heart-breaking 16 to 10 defeat at hands of Roosevelt's championship quintet.

Yell Leaders

Pep——tireless energy expended to cheer teams on to victory ——life of assemblies and pep meetings——the king and his two dukes——the fellows who take the students into the game with the team——truly the very backbone of school energy and spirit.

Baseball

Most popular of Spring pastimes from standpoint of student interest——many candidates for Quaker teams——lettermen scarce on this year's squad——rookies get chance——heavy hitting lies in power behind shoulders of Weinker, Schomberg and Di Julio——Franklin well-fitted for pitchers——Jones and Vallela regular starters, with Crothers and Lowe in relief——Coach Reed's squad gets off to a bad start as Garfield blanks them——Cleveland falls easy to sluggers——Broadway and Queen Anne dim Franklin's hopes with close victories——in comeback whips Roosevelt, but drops close game to Ballard——finishes first round of play with three victories and five losses.

MINOR SPORTS

Calkins Norton D. Tegler Richards Murphy Anderson Herberholtz Czarneicki T. Tegler Knapp Nelson

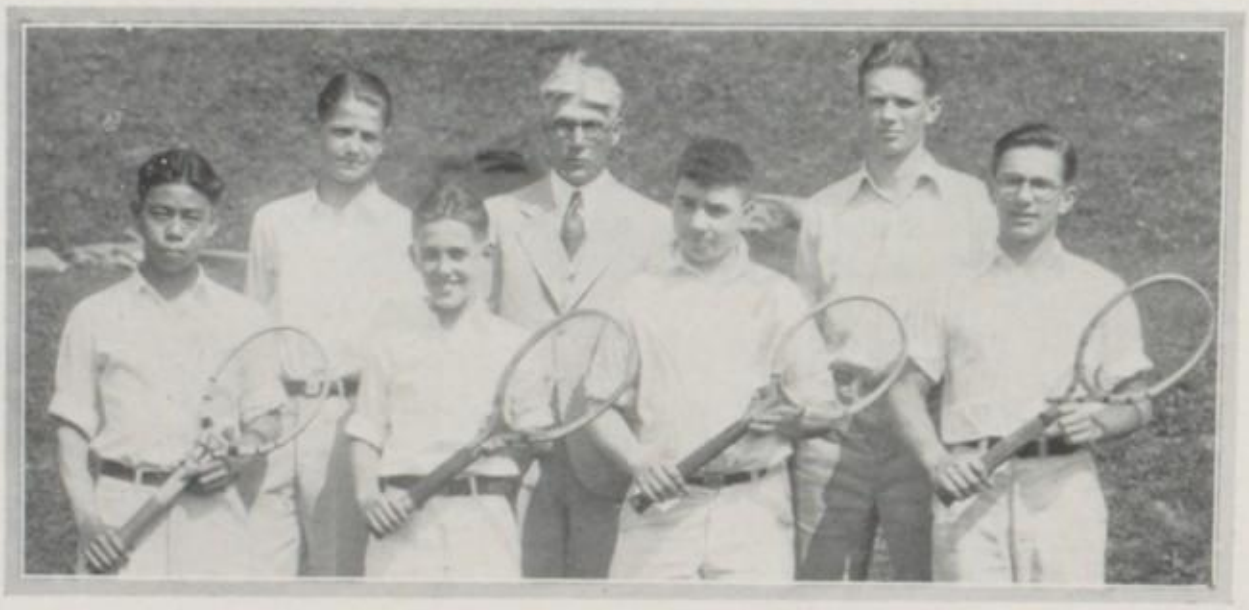
Golf Team

Leaders——these Quaker divot diggers showed their worth by blanking Queen Anne 24 to 0——a defeat by Ballard dimmed Franklin hopes, but the team is still "in" at press time—— Czarniecki —— Heberholtz —— Murphy —— Anderson —— Nelson——Smith——the Tegler twins——all champions or near-champions——such teams do not give in easily.

Tennis

Most popular minor Spring sport——stimulates both muscle and brains——teaches coordination and team work——six thrilling singles and doubles matches with rival schools—— team matches——competition keen——Laizure Trophy for winner——every candidate given equal chance for higher position——Franklin team not very strong as a team, but individual work is up to standard.

Toribara A. Lyford Schenk Laizure Gershon Hannay Ghiglione



BASEBALL

Boys' Intramural Sports

Intramural Sports—the very heart of Franklin athletics——promotes team work——teaches discipline——every boy gets a chance to make a team——under Instructor Ralph Knapp this year was most successful one——program varied——Football——class teams in heated tourney with Seniors victorious——Basketball——teams well matched——large crowds ——Interclass tournament——Sophs are champions——are taken for ride by Faculty——Hard and Indoor baseball leagues arouse student interest——Volleyball——Tennis——Horseshoe——Golf tournaments——hundreds of boys turned out for these sports and competed regularly.

Callendar, Delzer, Voigt, Schuman, Couch, Shields, Almquist, Anderson, Engstrom

Volleyball

Sore wrists and stiff muscles——cold showers, misplaced locker keys——misplaced clothes——over the net!——out of bounds——Seniors champions by virtue of victory over Frosh ——girls get wild and keep knocking the ball out of bounds ——too much pep for game where ball must stay within set area——jump——stretch——play good ball——fine cooperation and girls very enthusiastic.

Radonsky, Hamada, Hopton, Garrison
Kelly, Skofstad, Boyd
Schuman, Delzer, Scarramuzzo, Bowden

Junior Hockey

Upperclass sport——games played indoors during cold weather——skinned shins——floor burns——whoops and yells——clashing sticks——shin guards ——sailing puck——goal nets——skillful passing——fast running——popular sport——fighting teams and a hard race for victory——Juniors win championship in series with Seniors—— fighting spirit.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

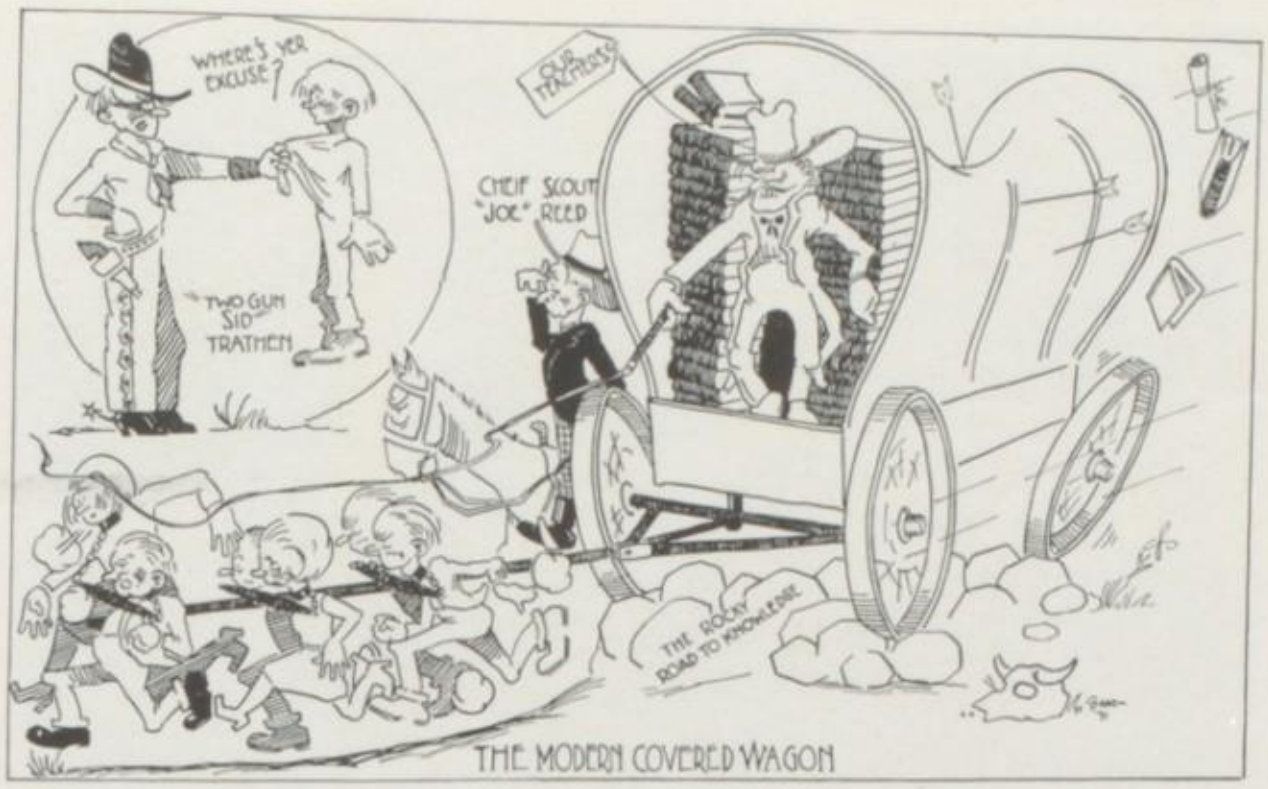
FATALITIES ON THE TRAIL OF 1931

Perils of the Plains—1931

First day out of vacation, three Frosh had "Two-Gun Sid" Trathen on their trail—— Chief Scout Joe Reed says there is no hope ——the water casks are as empty as a freshman's head——but Chief Your-Credit-No-Good (Ike Carmical) is camping by water hole called Beanery——Chieftess Standard English (Eileen O'Leary in a Sears-Roebuck blanket) has won all the men's hearts——the head mule-skinner says something should be done about it——savages, as will be noted, are on the warpath——Chief Iron Man ("Pop" Reed) scalped two pony express riders (Tolo reporters) but their loss was not noticed.



Perils of the Plains—1931

Flour is giving out, says the quartermaster, but the frosh still have plenty of crust—— small raiding parties of grads crash in and attempt to take leadership from Joe Reed—— Ed Metzger, water boy, is contemplating deserting to the enemy——he thinks he could put drama into the war dance——all the young bucks are hanging around the covered wagon serving as Girls' Club hangout—— they should be out winging Indians——Hurrah! Here comes the Ninth Cavalry! Saved! ——The forces from Fort Vacation under Captain Summer have driven off the savages ——Now we can take life easy.

Glenn Frank, L. L. D., President University of Wisconsin, recently proclaimed to the Nation, "The very things for which LABOR and liberalism have pleaded through the generations, on the ground of simple social justice; namely, high wages, short hours, and low prices, are now seen to be the only things that can, in the interest of the solvency of capitalism, KEEP OUR INDUSTRIAL ORDER A GOING CONCERN."

We extend to those about to graduate, our hearty congratulations, and in the light of President Frank's pointed declaration, invite you to study well our ideals and aspirations, and to affiliate in due time with the great Trade Union Movement which Gladstone said is "THE BULWARK OF THE NATION."

"That Something"— is me Don't forget me Marguerette Gaydeski. above all don't forget our semester in 105

In every first class job of printing there is a combination of Paper, Ink, Type, Cuts and modern Presses. Properly used, in the hands of Craftsmen skilled in the development of artistic printed effects, SATISFACTION always may confidently be expected. But—fine printing doesn't "happen." It requires those qualities that have been termed "That Something" to win steadily worth-while success. . . . .
